CHURCH HAPPENINGS

The annual WUMC Christmas Craft Bazaar was a huge, festive success once again! Thank you to Janet Cress & all of the other wonderful volunteers for making it happen!

Note from Janet: A huge thank you to all who helped with the 26th Annual Craft Bazaar 11/15 and 11/16; particularly to Jeanne Morgan and her daughter Sally for acquiring and organizing the Mission Craft table items, to Joe Cipriano, Theresa Cipriano, Angela Moser, and Ardell Forehand for organizing the Food Court area, and cooking some wonderful food; to Jim Mayo for making coffee and helping to clean up; to George Waltman for his invaluable assistance in setting up, maintaining, and cleaning up the Fellowship Hall (yeah to Saint George); to Phyllis Stowe, Mary Ann Fieffer, Joanie Stromm, and Bill Fieffer for helping out at the food court, to Stephanie Rodrigue and Theresa Cipriano for help in advertising, and I'm sure I've missed a few names but it sure does take a COMMUNITY to do this project! This year's Craft Bazaar also sponsored three 501c3 Non Profit organizations: Rise Against Hunger, N. Buncombe Samaritan Ministries, and the Lynn Fortheanimals Rescue Squad. This was AGAIN a wonderful community event, during which $1,841 was raised for the church through booth fees, food sales, and Mission table sales. I look forward to working with our newly formed committee to keep this worthy and FUN event going again next year.
