

TWIZZLER: September 1, 2020

FROM REV. DEVAL MASON

Can you believe that it is already September? Where did the summer go? This coming Fall season will be different than any other Fall season we have experienced in the past. No children or youth in the school buildings. No buses to wait behind on the roadways. No attending sports events in stadiums or auditoriums. Yes, there will be many changes we will have to make. But just wait, because Fall will still be Fall. The leaves on the trees will still turn colors and eventually fall off the trees. The weather will get milder and cooler. People will get outside more. There will be pumpkins for Halloween and turkeys for Thanksgiving. Some things will stay the same. The biggest and most important thing that will stay the same, is God. God's love, forgiveness, and compassion for each one of us will always stay the same. Therefore, God Is Good! All The Time!

SCAVENGER HUNT FUN

Sunday was a great day for our scavenger hunt! We had two teams of youth and 7 families join in the fun around our town, hunting clues. Thanks to our church family's donations towards the youth online yard sale, youth and families received prizes and gift cards that were directly funded by the yard sale fundraiser: Well Bred gift cards, popsicles, and prize bags of goodies were enjoyed by all! Thanks so much to all of our clue-location hosts: Renee Weaver, Holly Leavitt & crew, Cindy Hoots, Elizabeth Pennell & Family, Dale Pennell, Winikay Caffrey, & Janice Garland. Additionally, our haul of school supplies that was collected will go to support our local teachers and schools - thanks to everyone who helped out with supporting our community! Check out a slideshow of pictures from the day HERE!

We will take care of advertising online and coordinate with you for an item drop off day and time at the church for the buyer to collect. Thanks for supporting the youth program!

GOT BOOKS?

The Asheville Prison Books Project collects used books to donate to local prisons and would love to have your unwanted books. Rick Spoering left a collection box in the Narthex (foyer) of the church, so please bring your books by on Sunday morning to donate. They are hoping for paperback books no more than 2" thick, including dictionaries, with a special request for fiction books written by people of color.
