Immortal, Invisible

1. Immortal, invisible, God only wise, in light inaccessible hid from our eyes, most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, almighty, victorious, thy great name we praise.
2. Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light, nor wanting, nor wasting, thou rulest in might;
thy justice like mountains high soaring above thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.
3. To all, life thou givest, to both great and small; in all life thou livest, the true life of all;
we blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, and wither and perish, but naught changeth thee.
4. Thou reignest in glory; thou dwellest in light; thine angels adore thee, all veiling their sight; all laud we would render: O help us to see
'tis only the splendor of light hideth thee.

How Can We Name a Love

- 1 How can we name a Love that wakens heart and mind, indwelling all we know or think or do or seek or find?
Within our daily world, in every human face, Love's echoes sound and God is found, hid in the commonplace.
- 2 If we awoke to life built on a rock of care that asked no great reward but firm, assured, was simply there, we can, with parents' names, describe, and thus adore, Love unconfined, a father kind, a mother strong and sure.
- 3 When people share a task, and strength and skills unite in projects old or new,
to make or do with shared delight, our Friend and Partner's will is better understood, that all should share, create, and care, and know that life is good.
- 4 So in a hundred names, each day we all can meet a presence, sensed and shown at work, at home, or in the street.
Yet every name we see,
shines in a brighter sun:
In Christ alone is Love full grown and life and hope begun.
